LOST BY DAILY'S BAD WORK

The Indianapolis Players Bat Hard Enough to Defeat the Pittsburgs,

But Baily's Errors Give the Enemy Four Unearned Runs-Other League and Association Games-Trotting Races at Chicago.

Special, to the Indianapolis Journal.

PITTSBURG, Ang. 24.-Although Indianapolis batted Morris hard enough to capture to-day's game, his beautiful support, aided by Daily's bad work in the opening inning, enabled Pittsburg to win. Healy pitched a steady game, and was backed up cleverly in the field. Had Daily's work been what it should in the first inning, Patsburg would have been minus four onearned runs and the game as well. Sunday hit safe to right as a starter, stole second and third, and scored on Daily's bad throw to third, Carroll flew to Schoeneck, and Denny stopped Smith's hot grounder. Healy hit Beckley on the arm, and Beckley stole second, going to third on a passed ball. Miller went to first on balls, and stole second; Kuehne hit a scratch single, Beckley scoring and Miller taking third. Kuehne stole second, and a bad passed ball, which Daily took his time to recover, let both men home. Cleveland notired the side at first. Hines opened with a single to left, and a passed ball let him to second. Denny flew to Sunday. Carroll threw to second to catch Hines off his base, and the latter reached third, scoring on Seery's double to left. Bassett flew to Coleman, and Glasscock to Sunday. Coleman's single to right started the second; sacrifices by Morris and Sunday and Carroll's safe hit brought him home. With one man out, Schoeneck batted himself to first; Daily flew to Miller; Healy, Hines and Denny followed with singles, Schoenick scoring, Healy being caught on the plate, trying to score on Denny's hit to left, of which Miller made a pretty throw to Carroll. With one out in the eighth, McGeachy landed a two-bagger in left, and scored on Shoeneck's single to center. The latter was forced out at second by Daily's bit to Kuehne, and Healy flew to Miller. Kuehne hit a high bounder over Healy's head in the ninth, and reached first. Cleveland's sacrifice advanced him, and he scored on Coleman's drive to center. The latter was caught stealing second. Morris struck out. Hines led the forlorn hope with a single to left, and stole second. Sunday pulled down a nasty-looking drive by Denny. Seery was presented with a base on balls. When Bassett lined out a single to center, scoring Hines, the crowd began to think that Pittsburg might lose the game after all, but Glasscock accommodatingly hit to Kushne, doubling Bassett and himself up, and ending the game. There will be two games to-morrow, and the batteries will be Knell and Carroil; Burdick and Myers; Staley and Miller; Shreve and Buckley. Score.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24. - Whitney pitched a splendid game of ball against the Bostons today, but lost the game because of a wild throw in the third inning and his bad judgment on the bases, which cost the home team two runs. Umpire Kelly had considerable trouble with the spectators on account of several close decisions against the home club. Score:

An Order's Anniversary.

The anniversary of the Secret League was held last night in Mrs. Thomas's dancing hall, When Block. G. M. Walrod, of this city, presided, and the following programme was carried out: Opening address, Dr. B. W. Sullivan; piano solo. Miss May Miller; recitation, Mrs. Lucia J. Martin; vocal solo, Miss Nora B. Dickey; violin solo, Miss Alma White. After the programme . refreshments were served, and dancing took place until a late hour. The order originated in this city in 1884, and now has branches in Ohio, Illinois and Kentucky. John Peters, of New Albany, is the supreme cardinal; A. D. Miller, city, supreme recorder; John Furnas, city, supreme treasurer; Dr. D. M. Parman, city, supreme medical adviser. There are now forty-one branch lodges, twenty of which are in this State, with a total membership of over nine hundred. The organization has been very fortunate in its death rate since its foundation, there having been but four members deceased, upon which have been paid out only $2,000. Each separate lodge controls the pay ment of sick benefits, it being a matter outside of the general jurisdiction. During the last

INDIANA AND ILLINOIS NEWS

The Daily Chronicle of Happenings of Various Kinds in the Two States.

Governor's Day at the State Encampment-A School-Ma'am Demands Heavy Damages-Wilder's Brigade-Notes and Gleanings.

INDIANA.

Big Day at the Evansville Encampment-Reception to Governor Gray. Special to the Indianapolis Journal

Evansville, Ind., Aug. 24.—This has been one of the banner days of the State military encampment. It was Governor's day. In the forenoon there was a magnificent parade of the entire legion, beaded by Governor Gray and staff. After returning to the grounds there were competitive drills by infantry companies. In the afternoon 1,500 school children sang national airs, after which each shook hands with the Governor. To-night Governor Gray and staff and the military were given a grand reception at Evans Hall. Thousands of people were present and participated. It was an informal affair and very pleasant. Saturday will witness the opening of the Sængerfest of the Indiana, Illinois and Kentucky Turner societies. It is a feature of encampment week. All trains into the city to-day were crowded.

Heavy Damages Demanded.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. WABASH, Aug. 24 .- A sensational action was begun in the Wabash Circuit Court to-day by Miss Daisy Slack, a comely school teacher residing at La Gro, five miles east ofthis city. Miss Slack seeks to recover damages in the sum of $10,000 from William Orr, the richest farmer in the township, who, it is alleged in the complaint, vilely slandered the defendant, and accused her of being impure. The only provoca-tion Miss Slack is known to have given Orr was to send home two of his children because they were not of school age. In his rage, Orr called all the teachers at La Gro bad names, but Miss Slack received the full measure of abuse. Publie sympathy is with Miss Slack, who has suffered greatly from the accusation.

Jockey Seriously Hurt.

epecial to the Indianapolis Journal. HARTFORD, CITY, Aug. 24.-In the running race at the fair grounds this afternoon, Wm. Hooker, one of the jockeys, was run into by another jockey and hurled from his saddle, sustaining a broken arm and serious internal in-juries. Hooker resides at Montpelier. Jefferson Jones, a farmer, was also kicked in the stomach by a horse and seriously hurt, Charged with Stealing Feathers. Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

Tipton, Aug. 24. - Deputy Sheriff Tiffen went to Madison township, to-day, and arrested N. M. Harbitt on the charge of stealing about one hundred and fifty dollars' worth of feathers from persons at Ensaw, Mich. The sheriff arrived from that place this afternoon and took Harbits to Michigan for trial.

Minor Notes.

Albert Greenstreet, of Spiceland, died Thursday night of heart disease, aged seventy-two. He was probably the first white child born in that township. Mrs. Pritchard Davis, wife of a prominent farmer of Grant county, was found dead in her bed yesterday morning. The supposition is that she died of heart d'sease. Gas well No. 2, at Carthage, was shot with fine effect, Thursday. It now shows a thirty-seven-foot flame, indicating a capacity at least one fourth greater than that of No. 1. Henry Deweese, of Massillon, O., general bridge foreman of the Massillon Bridge Company, while superintending the building of an iron bridge over the St. Mary's river, at Fort Wayne, fell from the bridge, and was so badly injured about the head and shoulders that he cannot live through the night.

A Former Resident of Joliet About To Be Knighted by Queen Victoria. Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

BLOOMINGTON, Aug. 24.-Information has been received here by friends of President W. C. Vanhorne, of the Canadian Pacific, residing at Montreal, that knighthood is about to be conferred upon him in token of appreciation of his services in building up the railway interest of the Dominion. Mr. Vanhorne became a subject of Queen Victoria several years ago, and he is said to be the highest salaried railway official in North America, and is ranked among the millionaires. His boyhood was spent at Joliet. and before his connection with the Canada line he was in the employ of the Alton, the Missouri Pacific and the Wisconsin Central, and, also, for a year was manager of the Joliet iron and steel-works, at Joliet.

Wilder's Brigade.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal MARSHALL, Aug. 24 .- At a meeting of Wild er's Lightning Brigade, last evening, at the camp ground, the following executive committee was elected: Abe Cantwell, Seventeenth Indiana, Springfield, Ill., chairman: William McKanny, Ninth Illinois, Duncanville, Ill., secretary; Alex A. Rice, Seventy-second Indiana, Lafayette, Ind.; J. H. McClelland. One-hundred-and-twenty-third Illinois, Charleston, Ill; W. J. Wolfe, Eighteenth Indiana Battery, Brazil, Ind. Coles County Sunday-Schools. Special to the Indianapolis Journal-

MATTOON, Aug. 24 .- The annual Coles county Sunday-school convention concluded its labors with three sessions to-day, which were well at tended. Every township was represented by delegates, and all reported good work. Prominent State workers were present, including Mr. Phillips, of Jacksonville; Col. Frank Wilcox and Miss Nelecker, of Champaign. A feature of today's second session was a class drill by Mrs. Skidmore's class, of Charleston. Very satisfactory progress is reported in the work all over

Sold Whisky Without License. Special to the Indianapolis Journal

MARSHALL, Aug. 24.—Deputy United States Marshal Crail came here yesterday and went to Hatton, ten miles distant, and arrested Moses Patten, proprietor of a general store there, on the charge of selling liquor without a license. For several months Patten has been selling a sort of "bitters" as patent medicine, and complaint was frequently made of him, for the bitters invariably made those who drank it intoxicated, and his trade in this sort of goods was something wonderful. He was taken to Springfield for trial.

Brief Mention.

The Champaign county fair was a great success. The gate receipts were $4,600. Old debts will be paid off and $1,800 left in the treasury. The Illinois State Pharmaceutical Association closed a three days' session at Peoria, Thursday, after re-electing William Benton, of Peoria, president, and choosing L. C. Hogan, of Englewood, secretary, adjourning to meet next time in Quincy.

The annual Illinois Conference camp-meeting of the Methodist Episcopal Church began on Thursday at the Mechanicsburg camp-grounds. Rev. D. W. Potter, the evangelist, is in charge of the meeting. Mr. Miller, of Chicago, conducts the singing. The attendance is very large. A series of balloon ascensions have been advertised at various picnics held in Shelby county. Charles Moyer, of Pana, is the aeronaut. On Thursday at Prairie Bird the balloon became entangled in a tree, and Moyer fell, breaking his leg and receiving internal injuries from which he cannot recover.

The Sweezy-Murphy Case.

New York, Aug. 24.-Field W. Sweezy came to this city from Indiana, several weeks ago, to answer a criminal charge of betraying Miss Annie L. Murphy, an operator in the main office of the Western Union Telegraph Company, in this city. While stopping at the Astor House, awaiting an examination, Sweezy was arrested in a civil suit brought by the girl for $25,000 damages for breach of promise. To-day Judge Patterson, of the Supreme Court, chambers, vacated the order, holding that Sweezy is a nonresident, and that under the circumstances immunity from service of arrest applies to him as well as a witness.

New Departure in Education.

been leased by Rev. Father Sheedy, of "Our Lady of Mercy" Catholic Church, and they will be opened on Monday week as a parochial school. The move has already created some little excitement in educational and religious circles, and t bids fair to meet with as much opposition as the recent attempt to introduce Sisters of Charity as teachers in one of the South-side public schools. The First ward is largely composed of Catholics, and the action of the board in leasing the rooms was unanimous. Father Sheedy says there will be no interference whatever between the two schools, but he shall go into the school and hold his position unless there is a law that will drive him out.

THE OPIUM SMUGGLERS.

Three Ogdensburg Men Arrested, Including a Deputy Collector of Customs.

BUFFALO, Aug. 24 - Deputy United States Marshals Cavanaugh and Kranz, of this city. caused a sensation in the quiet little town of Ogdensburg, yesterday, by arresting three of its most reputable citizens. They are John W. Stone, lawyer; Nathan Lyttle, jr., deputy collector of customs at Ogdensburg, and Wm. J. Cumminsky, janitor of the custom-house, Warrants for their arrest were sworn out before United States Commissioner Fairchild, here, by J. J. Crowley and Maurice F. Holohan, special agents of the Treasury Department at Washington, and the charge reads:

"That at the city of Ogdensburg they did willfully combine, conspire, confederate and agree together to defraud the United States of America, to-wit: To feloniously embezzle, steal, purloin and take away from the possession of the United States about 770 pounds of prepared opium, which was then and there in the possession of the United States, and kept stored in a building owned by the United States, and occupied as a custom-house, and that they, pursuant to such unlawful combination, on or about the 2d day of July, 1888, did, at said Ogdensburg, feloniously steal from the United States, taking from said custom house one hundred pounds of said prepared opium."

This is the outcome of the arrest of Erwin R. Gardner, which took place at Ogdensburg last winter, when he and his cousin, Ephraim Gardner, were captured with nearly $25,000 worth of opium in their possession. It will be remembered that Erwin Gardner was arrested a day or two after in Chicago, in connection with the same case. It was found that he had been offering opium for sale there, and it did not take long for the government officers to discover it was smuggled; in fact, that it was the identical goods, or part of it, which had been found in his possession and that of his consin, last winter. This led to the sensational developments at once. The opium had been placed in the custom-house at Ugdensburg for safe keeping, and now it has been found on the streets of Chicago. Stone, Lyttle and Cumminsky were brought to Buffalo and lodged in jail to await examination, which is now in progress. The examination was adjourned till to-morrow and bail was demanded in $20,000 each. Being unable to furnish the amount, they were remanded

The three arrests at Ogdensburg appear to be due to discoveries in Gardner's papers captured here. Among the documents were letters from Stone to Gardner, clearly establishing the fact, it is said, that there was an agreement between Stone, the Ogdensburg lawyer, Nathaniel H. Lyttle, jr., deputy collector at Ogdensburg, and Wm. J. Cumiskey, the janitor of the custom-house at Ogdensburg, to "shift" some opium in the custody of Lyttle. This was the stuff confiscated at Ogdensburg, last winter. It had been smuggled into the United States by Gardner, and he was under bail of $15,000 for the offense. The value of the confiscated stuff was nearly $25,000. The "shift" meant that the gov-ernment would be robbed of this opium. The disposal of it by Gardner would enrich him and his confederates, and with its disappearance the evidence of the original crime of smuggling, for which he was to be tried, would be gone. It is stated that the letters of Gardner seized here show that it was he who planned the daring project. Lawyer Stone acted as go-between, and Deputy Collector Lyttle was to receive $4,000 of one spoils, of which $1,000 was to be paid to janitor Cummiskey. The wooden "dummy" or blocks sealed in little cans to resemble opium, with which it was supposed Gardner intended to swindle some would-be purchaser of the smuggled drug, are now shown to have been intended for a different purpose. The scheme was to put them in place of the genuine opium cans in the government vaults at Ogdensburg, there to wait the trial of Gardner when the discovery of the deception would almost inevitably result in his

CHICAGO, Aug. 24 .- E. A. Gardner, alias Martin, who was arrested in this city a few days ago, charged with smuggling opium into this country, and who is in jail awaiting the action of the government, was to-day shown the Associated Press dispetch from Buffalo, telling of the arrest of three men, supposed to be his accomplices, at Ogdensburg, yesterday. He said: "I know an attorney by the name of John W. Stone. He was my attorney and defended me in a case in which I was charged with smuggling. The case is now pending. He lives within sixty miles of my birthplace. The other two names are entirely unknown to me. I do not know any such persons. My relations with Stone have been only those of client and attorney."

Father and Son Drowned.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 24.-Word was received at police headquarters to-day from Maysville, Chautauqua Lake, of the drowning of Frank Fierst and his son, of this city. A telegram was first sent from Maysville, which was followed by a letter from Clarence H. Lake, sheriff of the county. The letter states that Fierst came to Maysville, several days ago, and registered as John Fierst, of Pittsburg. He was accompanied by his son. He paid his bill in advance up to to-day, remarking at the time that in case he was drowned, or anything should happen, he would leave no debts. He and his son spent a great deal of time on the lake in a row bont. Yesterday the two started down the lake in a small boat and did not return. Search was made and the boat was found about three miles up the lake, bottomside upward. Fierst was formerly a saloon-keeper on Pennsylvania avenue, but was refused license.

Their Two Methods.

The difference between English and American methods of reporting may be illustrated by the following interviews: English Reporter (to Lord Salisbury's private secretary)-Would you kindly intimate to his Lordship that it has come to the knowledge of the management of the telegraph that he de-sires to express an opinion publicly on the probable outcome of the Parnell suits, and that I

At that time Mr. Thurman's party was in power, and it had a revenue tariff, and wages were about one-half what they are to-day, clothing considerable dearer, farm products sold for less than half what they command to-day, on the average, and the boy who took twelve dozen eggs to market took home goods in full for the eggs which can be bought for sixty cents this day. But Mr. Thurman is not discoursing of these facts to the people.

Return of the Whistling Girl.

Queenstown (Me.) Special. Mrs. Alice Shaw, the handsome American lady of whistling fame, who made such a sensation on her advent to London, was among the saloon passengers who sailed in the City of Rome to-day for New York. During her sojoura in England she has electrified the English peoshe whistled select and difficult airs from the most popular operas. She says that she carries with her to America the most pleasant reminiscences of her English tour, and expects to visit England again, when she will make a stay in Ireland.

A PARTY OF TREACHERY.

An Opinion of the Third Party by a Man Who Is Acquainted with It, Dowagiac, (Mich.) Special.

Rev. Levi Dawey, pastor of the Christian Church at Hartford, left the Republican party, after a life-long service in its ranks, soon after the defeat of Mr. Blaine. He became a prohibitionist, believing that that organization would solve the liquor question more expeditiously. During his three years of service Mr. Dewey has become thoroughy acquainted with his new party, and has concluded to rejoin the Republican ranks. In closing a logical and well-written statement of his views for the Dowagiac Republican, he writes:

The Prohibition party's present status and avowed policy, can, I am thoroughly convinced, be productive of nothing but harm to the best interests of the American people. And I am further convinced that in the coming contest this third party, whose pernicious effects are greatly to be feared, will receive the support of many good, though mistaken, people, who will all unwittingly be placing obstacles in the way of the enward march of American civilization. This party is made up of two classes of people, the one a well-meaning and God-fearing, though over-zealous and mistaken class; the other a designing, ambitious and fanatical lot as the sun ever shone

Among the advocates of so-called prohibition, the musty old chestnut. "Let Christians vote as they pray," has been appropriated as a most delicious morsel, the sentiment of which is indeed good, but if any thinking man will carefully and honestly examine the respective platforms of the Democratic and Repub-lican parties and then will read prohibition literature and listen to prohibition oratory until he has con-vinced himself, as he most certainly will not fail to do, that the only victory which the Prohibition party hopes for or expects is the defeat of the Republican party and the success of the Democratic, and still continue to boast that in voting the Prohibition ticket he is voting as he prays. I shall feel like asking that man: "To whom do you address your prayers!"

I further charge that while the Prohibition party is so ontspoken and persistent in its demands for the to-tal annihilation of the liquor traffic, there is nowhere to be found in all of its declarations the slightest foundation upon which to build an intelligent hope for foundation upon which to build an intelligent hope for the consummation of its avowed purpose. Upon the other hand I unhesitatingly state, because the statement is true and cannot be controverted, that its constant cry has been and still is "Give us a party," and that instead of expressing sympathy with the temperance proclivities of other movements, it has never failed to discourage and deride all reformatory suggestions not born of the third party.

A cognizance of the above facts has led me up to the conclusion that the chief characterists of the third party are—treachery, and not loyalty, to the cause of temperance—unholy ambition, and not pure principle—a desire to become party leaders, and not a lofty desire for the general welfare. CLEVELAND'S LABOR RECORD.
